Muhammad Ali

Muhammad Ali, world champion boxer
A strong, dedicated man.

Ali was courageous and kind
With a very tenacious mind.

He helped black people greatly
Finding confidence and determination.

Ali didn't fight with blood and gore.
Instead, he supported people even more.

He cared deeply about others,
Feeding the hungry and poor.

Ali was a messenger of peace
Helping fix the world piece by piece.

In the ring, he never went down and stayed down.
His most notable lesson to us — never give up.
