A Crazy World

Walt Disney was a happy boy
Until one day he had no joy.

He had a good thing going on
Playing in a play and drawing a ton.

Moving away was so sad
Delivering newspapers hurt very bad.

Life wasn't terrible after awhile
When he found a friend to help him smile.

He also had an animator that was like a mentor
Helping him create a great character.

An amazing kingdom came to mind
Where characters are always so kind.

People loved these places a ton
Making him an inspiration to everyone.
